ValleyPalooza Spring “Soaring with Service” Scholarships

Students may now apply for spring scholarships

Valley Park, MO –ValleyPalooza Organization “Soaring with Service” scholarship applications are being accepted now through April 15, 2012. The ValleyPalooza Organization, Inc. “Soaring with Service” Award is intended to provide full or partial scholarships to eligible students to attend tuition-based, extra-curricular and/or summer programs and classes that provide learning opportunities for students in grades K-12.

The “Soaring with Service” program was developed as a way to encourage and reward students who are actively involved in service learning projects and community service for Valley Park residents. ValleyPalooza recognizes the importance of our community youth and their future. By holding events and promoting interactive programs that engage our youth, we can inspire their generation to volunteer and expand their education.

Any Valley Park resident or parent may nominate a student who attends Valley Park School District in grades K-12 for a “Soaring with Service” Award. Students may also self-nominate or nominate their peers as well. Each person may nominate one student per year.

The application and information on ValleyPalooza and their other events and programs can be found at:
